Declaration of Independence for the Dissertation

I hereby explicitly declare that the dissertation I have submitted, titled:

is an independent work written by me without external assistance and has been prepared in accordance with the principles of good academic practice.

I confirm that I have correctly cited all external sources used in the aforementioned work, including those obtained from the internet (such as tables, graphics, etc.). In particular, I confirm that I have consistently provided references for all quotations (directly copied statements) and for unchanged tables, graphics, etc., as well as for paraphrased content (statements rewritten in my own words) and for any modified tables, graphics, etc. from other authors.

By signing this declaration, I confirm that I have discussed the admissibility of using IT/AI-based tools (especially for data collection, data analysis, and text generation) with my supervisor. If I have used IT/AI-based tools, I have transparently disclosed and documented them (including product names, sources, descriptions of functions used, scope of use, etc.).

I understand that violations of the principles of independent work will be considered misconduct and will be sanctioned in accordance with the applicable doctoral regulations and/or the Fächerübergreifenden Satzung zur Regelung von Zulassung, Studium und Prüfung der Humboldt-Universität (ZSP-HU).

I agree that the dissertation may be copied, transmitted, stored, and processed in electronic form for the purpose of plagiarism detection. The transfer of usage rights is limited in time and scope to the review process and any subsequent verification procedures. I certify that the digital version of the dissertation corresponds exactly to the printed version submitted. The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is observed.

I confirm the accuracy of this declaration.
